Chair:

Hi family,

I will run the first half of area today and have Mike run the second half in preparation for him taking over the chair position in a couple months.

I hope everyone that attended the salmon bake had a good time and ate some good food.

I have nothing else to report.

Thank you for letting me be of service,

Jake H

Vice Chair:

You may recall that a few months ago I was asked by this SASC to come up with a plan for an "area inventory". I was also asked to come up with a plan to refresh the official SASC guidelines published on the SeattleNA.org website and which appear to have some omissions and inconsistencies and typographical and formatting errors.

I am please to report that today we have a proposal and we will vote on this matter during "old-business" later today. Our proposal is as follows:

The area inventory will be facilitated by Jeff H, who is a member of NA from outside of the Seattle Area and has prior experience in conducting an area inventory.

The area inventory will be on November 25th 2017 ( the Saturday following Thanksgiving) at Noon to 3pm at Edmonds Lutheran Church 23525 84th Ave W, Edmonds, WA 98026

This is immediately following the Unity Day Spiritual Breakfast and at the same location. We think that having these two events back-to-back in the same location will make for a wonderful combination.

The total cost will be less than $100. There will be a charge for the room and photocopy charges. This will be paid for from the existing Q4 admin budget, so no new money needs approval.

The area inventory will include a review of the guidelines.

We will distribute flyers at the November SASC meeting.

Recording Secretary:

Hello family,

I don't have much to report. I did go to The Lewis County Service Learning Day yesterday. It was a lot of fun! I'm really looking forward to the Regional service learning days that blue mountain area is putting on November 3 and 4.

SASC Treasurer Report

To: Seattle Area Service Committee of Narcotics Anonymous
From: Tyler E. (SASC Treasurer)
Date: 10-01-2017

1. The bank statements and ledger balances matched this month. I made a correction this month of $0.05 to the ledger. We wrote check 9124 for $13.42, but Bank of America cashed the check for $13.47. As a result, I have corrected the ledger balance to reflect the $0.05 difference.
2. I will now read the financial statement for September 2017. I will email the statement out to the recording secretary, chair and vice chair for distribution with the minutes.

Hello everyone

I am happy to report that our Oct. carnival is coming along nicely with the donations including 8+ piñatas and 5 bales of straw for our prizes in a haystack activity.

We are asking home groups interested in taking part to consider donating pumpkins, medium in size (but any size is appreciated), craft supplies (brushes, sponges etc.) for the painting and decorating of the pumpkins. Of course candy and small trinket prizes are appreciated as well.

We are passing out flyers today for both the October Carnival and our annual Gratitude Dinner which will be at Edmonds Lutheran on Thanksgiving.

Activities is always looking for fresh energy and ideas. We meet on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month at 7PM at Edmonds Lutheran – even if an individual or homegroup is only interested in helping with a certain event we will gladly welcome the assistance – I am ALWAYS available via my phone which is listed on the back of all

Seattle area schedules.

We are still looking for a venue for the New Year's Eve dance, so if you have any ideas, let me know.

Thank you everyone for letting me be of service

RCM Report to October 2017 SASC

I attended the Salmon Bake last Saturday and I felt like it was very successful. Congrats SINAC. Excellent food, ridiculous dessert auction, two off the hook speakers. Blessed.

I attended the PR Committee on Sept 10. I felt like there is some change happening on the committee and that the committee is very actively addressing concerns voiced about the phonline. It will be interesting to watch as the bus sign and magnet projects get the word out about the NA Program. Thanks for the dedicated service from PR.

In the upcoming months the RCM team comprised of Steve F and the new RCM2 will be facilitating the process of relaying the information about the upcoming biannual May 2018 World Service Conference. At October RSC, we will submit a bid to host a quadrant Conference Agenda Report (CAR) Workshop in December or hopefully January. They will need your support.

I would like to thank the Seattle ASC for allowing me to serve these past two years. Had a great time. Love NA. Believe in rotation as well as continuity. Will be available to new RCM team as a resource. It has been a great privilege to work with Steve F, as well as all the great individuals serving on the Area and Regional levels.

Thank you all,

Bill M

RCM 2:

Hi Family.

Not much to report this month. I am very sad to let Bill M. go today. We've come so far over the past two years. He's been a great RCM and I will miss a lot. Love ya buddy. On the other side of the coin I am excited to see who get elected into the RCM2 position which is going to be voted on today! I hope you all stick around after the break to help with that.

I've reached out to Ray W. to schedule a day with the Edmonds church for the CAR workshop. The proposed dates are January 6th or 13th. Bill and I have focused our efforts on the three IDT's over the past year, and we believe that we've seen you guys take interest in this stuff. I hope that interest continues into the next year and that many of you will come to this workshop... I'm thinking chilly cook-off!

As a note, I attended The Louis County's Service Learning days yesterday and the event was a big success! Kiera and myself had a great time down there. I will hopefully be able to bring the idea of an annual, Seattle Area Service Learning Days to the PR floor. Maybe we can jump start that as a special project.

As far as events go, NAWS has just opened up registration for the 2018 World Convention(WCNA37) to be held in Orlando FL on Aug 30th - Sept 2nd 2018. You can find more info about registration on the NAWS website - NA.org

Finally, WNIRNA is having their Service Learning Days, which is a two day FREE event, held at St Paul's Episcopal Church in Walla Walla on November 3rd and 4th. Hope that some of you plan on attending it because its gonna be a good event!

Anyways, that is all.

In service,
Steve F.

Hello All,

Not much to report as this was my first month in my new position. I tried to do as much information gathering regarding the duties and responsibilities of my position. I met with Julia on Friday and she agreed to sit next to me at the C&E meeting at region on October 14th to be able to help me understand what was going on.

Since this is a 3 year position it is my hope that I will understand the duties and responsibilities prior to my term being up!

I move that: SASC allocate $1000 to be available for additional seed money for Western Service Learning Days in November 2019.

Intent: A commitment to additional seed money needs to be included in the region's bid to hold this event.

We will be requesting WNIR also allocate $1000 for seed money. The costs projected to be more than the $5000 (seed money) which is why additional funds are needed. The event will be held at the Seatac Marriot and service enthusiasts from the Western US will attend!
